SAINT JOHN JEWISH HISTORICAL MUSEUM OPENS FOR 25th SEASON

The Saint John Jewish Historical Museum is pleased to announce it will be open for the summer season at 91 Leinster Street (corner of Wentworth)) in Uptown Saint John. Regular hours of operation are from Monday through Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and also on Sunday during July and August from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. These hours will remain in effect from Tuesday, May 25 to Friday, October 29. Group tours are also welcomed by appointment throughout the year.

Featured exhibits :

- “Packing for the Voyage” - the story of Jewish immigration from 1858 to 1920.
- The Jewish Way of Life - a celebration of Jewish holidays and customs from the cradle to the grave using artifacts and community stories.
- "Celebrating 150 Years of Jewish History in Saint John" - the story of the Jewish experience in Saint John through story, photographs and artifacts.
- “Under the Chuppah – Jewish Weddings in Saint John” – a display of vintage wedding gowns (1920s to 1950s) and photographs (1880s to present).
- “Old Judaica” – a sampling of ancient Israeli lamps, urns and bowls

An archives and library which attract historians and genealogists from around the world is open to researchers by appointment throughout the year.

The museum will be closed on all Saturdays in observance of the Jewish Sabbath and for Jewish Holy Days.

The museum welcomes visitors from throughout the world who arrive in the city by car, bus and cruise ship, as well as local residents.
